THE 1950

B E

Mid-century Beaverton will probably be pretty much like any other year except maybe more frosh,
more transfers, more teachers and - - - yes we're still adding more rooms
to the old shack.

Best Wishes,

The Man With the Pipe...That's Jack

Distinction of being the Beaver to take the longest to "graduate" from Beaverton high school goes to homespun Jack Osfield, honorary member of Winged "B" and proud possessor of a letterman's sweater. Jack has frequented Beaver corridors for nearly fifteen years. Often in assembly, always at games, and never in class, he has made slow progress academically. But he never shirks an assignment, most of which are self-imposed.

Neatly tucked away in Jack's home, just a few doors from the high school, are accurate records of all Beaver athletic contests. A veteran photographer, Jack has punctuated these records with action shots of the boys. Each year he presents pictures to the senior athletes. The last two years he made these pictures into statuettes.

A pharmacist by profession, a flower-fancier and photographer by choice, Jack is a friend of high school kids by instinct. His jaunty "hi kids" is well-known among students.

Jack can boast a Beaver graduate in his family when Janice, his daughter, receives her diploma in May.

To you, Jack, without whom our school could not operate, the Annual Staff dedicates this 1950 Beaver.

Class of Fifty Reaches Top Rung...

Sitting: Sally Stearns, yell leader; Joe Balfe, treasurer.

Dick Timmons President 1st Semester

In the fall of 1946, boasting as Beaverton largest class, the seniors crept quietly through the doors of H. S. and under the watchful eyes of the upper classmen, took their places on the bottom rung of the ladder.

With boundless enthusiasm and spirit, they have reached the top, leaving an outstanding record at each rung.

Winning the coveted service flag in the Christmas toy drive started the climb. Megaphones were made and sold, and a skating party climaxed the endless round of activities the freshman year.

Honor came to the ladder in the sophomore year as Marilyn McCamley won a gold key in the National Arts Award Contest.

The junior year was never to be forgotten as the class of '50 was the first privileged to hold its Junior Prom in the new cafeteria. What a wonderful dance it was!

The second half of the century began and the seniors added much toward their goal in the field of politics. Many seniors held S. B. offices. They showed their love of music by presenting an assembly featuring a vocal quartet.

Commencement May 25 marked the last step with 157 seniors leaving behind this ladder of work, honor, and good times to seek new challenges and new heights.

Holding the lead rein during the first semester was Ed Clemens. Barry Hoaglin assisted as vice-president, along with Barbara Hemrich, secretary; Bob Barton, treasurer; Richard Larsen, reporter; Katherine Goyak, song leader; and yell leaders Bill Byrd and Jim Tsugawa.

After sprinting into the second semester, Roger Murch spurted ahead to become president of the class. Ray DeYoung came in as vice-president, followed by JoAnn Kramer, secretary; Dick Wise, treasurer; and David Elliott, reporter. In the music and voice making department are: Lois Findley, pianist; LaVelle Flannery, song leader; with Joanne Kraft and Pete Carpenter, yell leaders.

Roger Murch, President 2nd Semester

The "Colonial South" was the theme of the Junior Prom held May 12, under the general direction of Roger Murch.

Ruling as queen of the 1950 Spring Reign was gracious and lovely Pat Traner, a junior, of course!

Juniors monopolized the service plaque all year.

Melvin Mori President 2nd Semester

No longer were they the anonymous freshmen. The year long test had been completed and each member of the class of '52 had been awarded the grade "sophomore." Sporting this new title, the class began another year of continuous activity.

Pat Madden was elected student body pianist and proved to all that the sophomore class possessed musical talent. Physical prowess was well represented in varsity sports by Dick Gervais, Louis LaCheck, and Ron Kemmer. Forensic ability was displayed by Nancy Hooper and Thomas Goldsmith as they were participants on a debate team.

A skating party that was held with the freshmen rounded out the sophomores' (social) calender.

Class officers for the first semester were: Melvin Mori, president; David Dimeo, vice-president; Carla Indahl, secretary; Curtis Wilson, treasurer; Karen Kraft, reporter; Vanda Benson and Dick Gervais, song leaders; and Gabriella Ghiglietti and Dee Hudson, yell leaders.

Class officers for the second semester were: Louis LaCheck, president; Ed Ramsdell, vice-president; Jo Allene Krueger, secretary; Ron Kemmer, treasurer; Mary Jo Cornell, reporter; Dreenali Zwahlen and Shirlee Syverson, song leaders; and Darrel Emerick and Zola Lindsay, yell leaders.

Neophytes Swamp Halls...

Bart Olson, President 1st Semester

FIRST SEMESTER

With the advent of the school year came a new batch of bouncing baby Beavers. Over-running the halls, these new citizens soon became easily identifiable, mainly by their enthusiatic, if slightly confused expressions.

Heading the freshmen "Beaver board", for the first semester was Bart Olson; assisting him were: Kent Davidson, vice-president; Sanda Williams, secretary; Ernie Zwahlin, treasurer; Virginia Huddleston, Marlene Douglas, yell leaders; and Kay Bader, song leader.

Bubbling over into the second semester, the little Beavers elected new officers: Gordon Evans, president; Travis Cavens, vice-president; Darlene Evans, secretary; and Robert Haines, treasurer.

With their usual ambition, the freshmen planned for and participated in a skating party in the early part of the year. They also helped to sponsor a movie, "The Phantom of the Opera," shown in assembly February 24.

ADMINI

STRATION

Early this fall several faculty members rode over the bus route to see where the Beaverton students live.

They were impressed by the size of the area and the well kept homes --- and shall we say visibly moved by the bus.

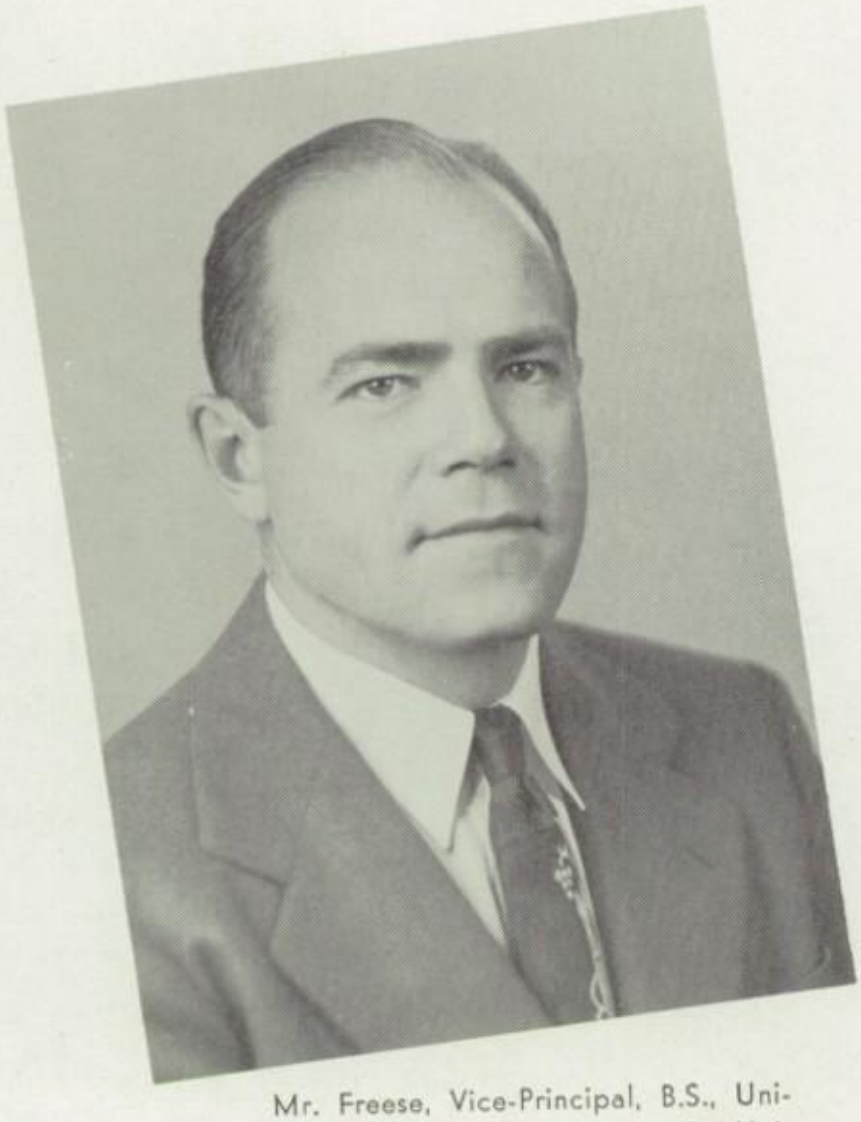
Twenty Eight Teachers Make up Fifty Faculty...

As I. R. (Mike) Metzler, principal, looks back over his more than a quarter of a century at Beaverton high school he can see a steady growth which was climaxed this year in the enrollment of 780 students. This year, too, saw the completion of the new science wing, another step in the long range building program, and an increase in the number of faculty members. Twenty-eight teachers, bringing degrees from various sections of the country, made up Beaverton's mid-century staff. Working with them were several cadets from Pacific University.

Assisting Mr. Metzler was Bernard (Gene) Freese in the capacity of vice-principal. In addition to his administrative duties Mr. Freese taught health and coached varsity football.

Directing Beaverton's program of adult education was Miss Geraldine Sanford. Regularly scheduled classes met on Mondays with qualified instructors.

Mr. Metzler, Principal



Mr. Freese, Vice-Principal, B.S., University of North Dakota; M.S., University of Oregon; Boys' P.E., Health, Athletics.

Miss Geraldine Sanford, B.A., University of Oregon; Senior English, Director Adult Education.

Mrs. Betty Kindinger, Mrs. Letha Turner, and Mrs. Evelyn McGill collaborate on office problems.

Perky Mrs. Evelyn McGill could have used roller skates last fall when she found herself installed in the new spacious office quarters. An intercommunication system between the main room and Mr. Metzler's inner office at the far end helped to minimize steps. Mrs. Betty Kindinger assisted in the office routine the first semester and was succeeded by Mrs. Letha Turner the second semester.

BIGGER SCHOOL...MORE PROBLEMS

With Beaverton moving into its third consecutive year of construction and a growing student body requiring more attention, school board members found many new challenging problems to solve this year.

W. D. Cameron was chairman of the board composed of: R. M. Hart, Harris Hansen, Don Williams, and L. J. Furlong whose resignation brought about the appointment of William Rosenfeld. Mrs. Letha Turner succeeded Mrs. Betty Kindinger, clerk, the first half of year.

Men at Work...Inside and Out...

Through mud and snow twice a day ploughed the schoo buses. Traveling in all directions from the school the nin buses covered a total of about sixty-thousand miles an transported several hundred students to and from schoo In addition to their daily runs, the buses were used to tak students to basketball and football games and assisted i many other interscholastic activities. One bus was added t the regular runs this year to help alleviate the still crowde conditions.

James Schurman was in charge of transportation.

Miles of hallways and gallons of wax made fine "skating" for students who "slid" in early on Monday mornings this year. Gene Beighley, John Day and Leonard Fuller, cus- todians found the ever expanding building requiring un- tiring attention. Mrs. John Day assisted the men in the daily routine of keeping the building in shape.

Popular Spot..the Library

That Beaver readers like their literature was indicated this year by the average of 80 books checked out daily.

The library grew considerably over last year with an average of 25 students using its facilities each period. Ten student librarians and Mrs. Whitbeck were kept busy with the innumerable routine duties.

The magazine subscription list reached 60 which provided endless reading material for students and faculty members.

Many classes visited the library for an entire session so that as a group they might utilize the resources available.

Attractive in its arrangement and coloring the library has provided a popular meeting place after school hours.

Students find easy access to reference material.

Cafeteria...Where Appetites and Food Meet...

Mrs. Smith, better known as Etta to hungry students and teachers, has really had a job to please the majority of varied appetites and still come out on her budget. Favorites of the cafeteria are apple pie, mashed potatoes with tuna topping and chocolate cake.

Ably assisting Mrs. Smith were Mrs. Schurman, Bill Fudge, Gordon McMinn, and eight capable girls: Pat Wright, Joyce Schmitz, Phyllis Bell, Lucy Chvalovsky, Lorrie Jones, Lucille Wright, Janice Vitko, and Joanne Stout.

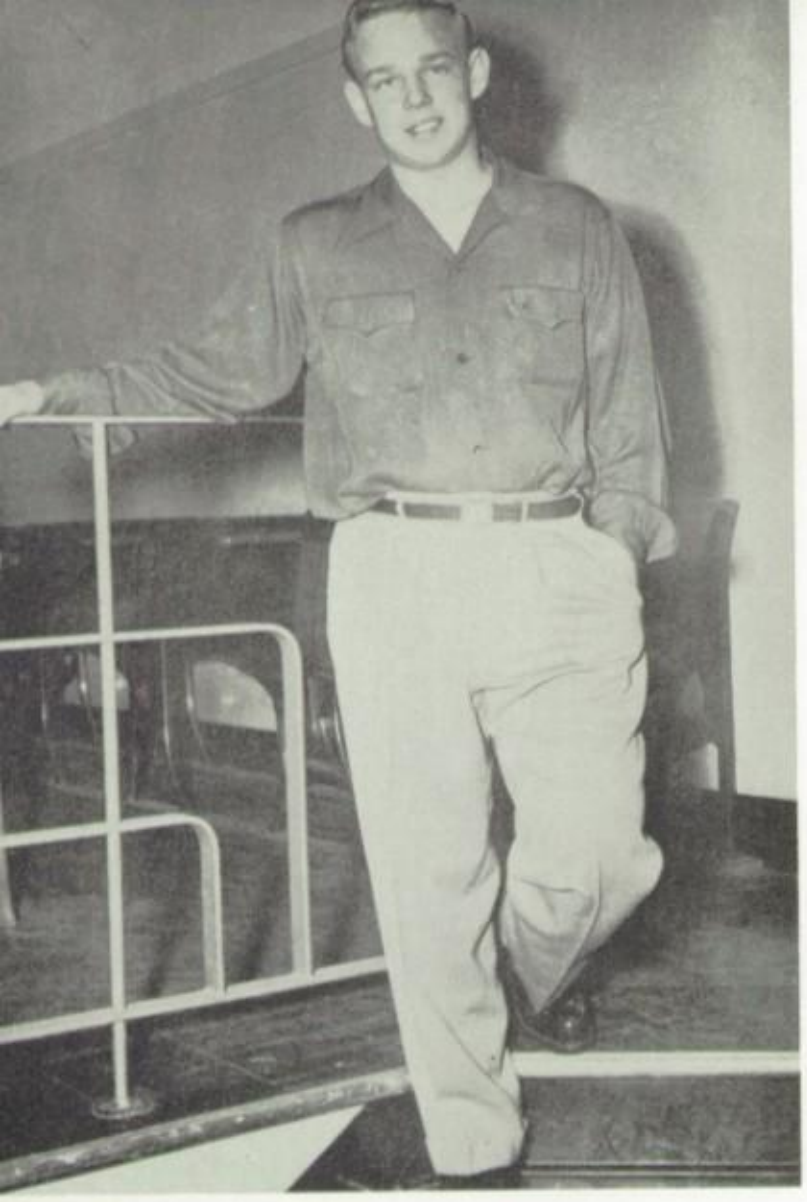
ATIONS



1st Semester President, Don Strandberg

PRESIDENTS PLAN

Presiding with the ease of a veteran, "Wheelbarrow" Strandberg arranged a series of worthwhile assemblies for the fall term. Outstanding among them was the concert given by the Linfield a capella choir in December, preceding their Christmas tour.

An innovation fall term was the showing of football motion pictures, a so-called "lie detector" devised by Coach Freese.

An after-game dance planned by the student council and scheduled for January was snowed out.

Don's smooth nomination and installation assemblies set the stage for second semester officers.

Assisting Don were Jim Tsugawa, vice-president; Donna Kay Burt, secretary; Bill Fudge, treasurer; Don Duffield, manager; and Gerald Morford, reporter.

Standing: Bill Fudge, Treasurer; Jerold Morford, Reporter; Don Duffield, Business Manager

STUDENT ASSEMBLIES

The second semester brought snow storms and intermittant vacation to the students and Bud Ramsdell to the presidency. Supporting Bud were: Dale Lindsay, vice-president; Marilyn Brewster, secretary; Gottfried Krautscheid, assistant treasurer; Eddie Zurflueh, business manager and Bob Sinclair, reporter.

Responsibility for assemblies was shared with a few organizations who chose to present programs. Several numbers by the speech classes, the band and glee clubs together with a thirty-minute concert by the Lewis and Clark men's chorus will long be remembered.

Under the leadership of Dale Lindsay, the student council recommended several constitutional changes.

Poise and personality spotlighted Bud's administration; under his direction the assemblies became sparkling productions.

Loads of luck to that peppy little boxes who is so smart in algebra! Donna Kay

One hundred pages of memories was the goal of the 1950 Beaver staff as it set about picturing Beaverton student life at the mid-century.

Work on the '50 Beaver began in early May of last year when the staff was initiated by their predecessors in the traditional dinner ceremony.

Highlight of the year was the "annual" assembly in which the staff presented the men's glee club from Lewis and Clark College.

Carol Olson and Diane Johnston received free annuals for their winning entries in the box top contest "Why I should receive a free annual." Several students were given fifty-cent credit slips on the purchase price of their year books. The first period office practice class with Pat Hagen as salesman was the first room to reach 100% in purchasing annuals.

Hummer Staff Hums All-American Tune

Another record was smashed when 623 copies of the Hummer were sold on its first appearance in September!

Headed by Roger Murch and ably advised by Miss Amarette Barnes, the staff continued to produce an All American paper—an honor held by the Hummer for years. Local students took an active part in the TYV Press Club, an organization composed of new paper staffs of the TYV athletic league.

Roger represented Beaverton as president of the Oregon High School Press Association. He accepted the Arnold Bennett Hall cup at the Eugene conference awarded to the 1948-49 Hummer as the "paper showing the greatest improvement."

Helen Stevens and John Comer assisted Miss Barnes in qualifying staff members for Quill and Scroll, national journalism honorary.

Ken Alexander, business manager for both terms, succeeded in keeping Hummer accounts in the black. Richard Larson was assistant editor.

Peppers Add Spice to Beaver Diet

Helen Stevens, President 1st Semester

Pep at Beaverton is more than a cereal. The weekly injection of fun and facts from the 24 Peppers who present assembly stunts has made the name Pep Club synonymous with school spirit.

Dances, stunts and the sale of rooters' caps kept the club more than busy. A surprise serpentine staged one Friday afternoon early in the year was a novel beginning to a pep assembly.

An active rally squad clad in black sweaters with orange and black culottes assisted in the yell sessions at assemblies and games.

The groups started a three-year fund of $20 a year to be used in the purchase of new sweaters.

Mrs. Duncan, Miss West and Mr. See advised the group.

Bob Bryant

Boys' Quartet composed of D. Graf, R. Saunders, B. Gredvig, and R. Bryant is accompanied by M. Robinson.

An animated Christmas Tree high-lighted the Christmas concert, in which the mixed chorus under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Duncan gave a "new twist to an old tune", "T' was the Night Before Christmas.".

Among other notable performances were the glee clubs' participation in several assemblies, the district music tournament, and the spring concert.

To the delight of the choir, additional maroon robes were purchased this year, enabling everone to wear a robe.

A select group of vocalists from the girls' glee and the boys' chorus were representatives of Beaverton in a talent contest held at Milwaukie.

Mr. Melvin Wells directed the boys' chorus and the quartet, presenting them before the student body and in concert. Mrs. Duncan trained the freshman chorus.

Small Band Adds Snap to Assemblies

Toots and flutes punctuated by rat-a-tat-tats echo daily first period from the cafeteria where the 35-piece band "works out" under the direction of Melvin Wells.

Smartly uniformed in grey, the group appeared in an evening concert in March, the student assembly February 10 and at the Annual Boy Scout Jamboree in Portland. They played at several home football games and at most of the assemblies.

Although small in numbers, the band has done a commendable job in instrumentation.

Student leaders for this year were Carl Fetty and John Comer with Dorothy Carr as librarian.

Speakers Cop More Trophies...

Three first places were won by B.H.S. speech students this year, in tournament competition along with numerous second and third places. Dianne Hathaway won first in interpretative reading at Pacific University. Bob Sinclair earned a trophy in serious declamation and Bill Fudge in impromptu speaking at Linfield. The students earned speech pins during the year: Bob Sinclair, Dick Olson, Bill Fudge, Paul Choban, Jim Gregory, Carol Taylor, Art Carpenter, George Evans, Jerry Garvin, Beverly Larson, and Avis Jones. In the district tournament five were winners in six out of nine events.

Coached by E. G. Webb, veteran speech instructor, Beaverton's debate team represented this district in the State finals.

Y-Teens Share Sweets With Europe...

A "Barber Shop" quartet of comely Y-Teens singing "Drop Your Nickles in the Pot" persuaded Beaver students to contribute toward "Candy Bars for Europe." The local Y-Teens took first place in the state in this project. Dr. Lansing Kempton's inspiring talk at the traditional Thanksgiving assembly, was followed by the ever popular Turkey Raffle over which Roger Murch presided. There were hot-dog and coffee sales at the games, engraved stationery for students, a Mid-Winter Conference, and Christmas baskets for the needy to keep the Y-Teens busy.

Big event of the year was the biennial Spring Reign over which brunette Queen Pat Traner graciously ruled.

Hi-Y Boys Turn Legislators...

Thirty boys under the advisorship of Vernon Hood made up the membership of Hi-Y, branch of the Y.M.C.A. for high school boys.

Officers for the first semester were: Harry Wold, president; Bob Thompson, secretary-treasurer; and Paul Strandberg, chaplin.

Dale Lindsay took over the presidency the second semester, assisted by Carl Fetty, vice-president; Bob Syverson, secretary-treasurer; and Sam Holmes, chaplin.

An initiation party for new members was held in the early part of the school year. The group has attended, throughout the year, several of the local church services.

Representatives from the Hi-Y to the model legislature at Salem this year were Jerry Garvin and Jim Tsugawa.

Fire Squad Directs Traffic...

Fire boys, under the advisorship of Mr. Metzler proved themselves equal to the enlarging school plant by adding a fifth squad to their organization this year to care for the new science wing.

Organized primarily to facilitate fire drills, the boys assisted in solving traffic problems on the stairs, set up chairs for the assemblies and generally assumed the "muscle men" duties.

Fire chief this year was Jim Gregory with Don Strandberg lieutenant, and Bud Ramsdall, Dale Lindsay, Don Duffield, Bob Syverson and Harry Wold captains.

Skating Popular with Co-ed Athletes...

What does G. A. A. stand for? Could it be "Get All A's"? No, it's the Girls' Athletic Association, composed of athletically minded co-eds. Under the Oregon state point system, membership is open to any girl who has accumulated fifty points during the year.

With the assistance of Mrs. Tindall and Mrs. Whitbeck, advisors, the club has sponsored ice-skating and roller-skating parties.

Membership for this year has topped an all time high in many a year. Officers were: Fern Cannaday, president; Norma Emerick, vice-president; Carol VanderMeulen, secretary; Kathleen Kennish, treasurer; Shirley Van Hyning, sports manager; and ten squad leaders.

Kilocycles Electrify School...

Wave lengths, amperes, and static were the chief problems of the Kilocycles, an organization composed of the radio classes, under the direction of Mr. Stoffer, science teacher.

They maintained a phone from the player's bench to the broadcasting booth at all home football games, operated the P. A. system, set up mikes for the assemblies, repaired the electrical equipment of the school and were in charge of the movie projectors, record players, and wire recorder.

Officers for this group were Bob Ervin, president; Arthur Martin, vice-president; Gene Walters, secretary; David Elliott, treasurer, and Robert Sturtevant, maintenance manager.

JoAnn Kramer, President

More members and more service projects were the aims of the Junior Red Cross Council this year under the leadership of JoAnn Kramer, president.

A sum of $54.12 was collected in the Red Cross membership drive held early in the year. This amount was sent to the Washington County Junior Red Cross chapter and will be used for sending representatives to the Junior Red Cross Training Center at Silver Creek Falls for a week during the summer.

JoAnn Kramer and Bob Speer were the two delegates sent from Beaverton last summer.

For money raising projects the council sponsored a Sadie Hawkin's dance complete with bales of hay, cider jugs, and costumes. They also had an after game dance.

The group was advised by Mrs. Metzler and Miss Sering.

With screams of terror, the students viewed the technicolor movie "The Phantom of the Opera" sponsored by the Torch Honor and the freshman class. Another memorable assembly presented by the "blue carders" was the television show complete with Santa Claus in the person of George Evans.

Again this year Torch Honor members enjoyed a "smarty party" given at the home of Dorothy Carr. Old-time games and good food helped to make the affair one to be remembered.

Driver's Club Emphasizes Safety...

Gerry Garvin, President

Keeping the Driver's Club on the right side of the yellow line this year was Jerry Garvin, president, assisted by an able back seat driver, Bud Hansen, secretary. Advisor for the club was Mr. Wells.

Skip Weigel, Beaverton policeman, helped considerably during the year by securing speakers and movies for the club meetings. The speakers were: Officers Hale and Saddler of the Portland Police Department and Mr. MacCaller of the Bell Telephone Company Traffic Safety Division. Mr. MacCaller also showed a film on traffic safety. An outdoor meeting was held for the purpose of testing the reaction time of club members.

The group worked to compile a record of traffic accidents and citations with the hope of improving the safety record of members.

Pigskin Eleven features single wing-back formation

Featuring a single-wingback style of offense, the "Beavers" pounded out a .500 percent season, tying one, winning four, and dropping the same number of games.

Operating this year with a big line and a small backfield, the Beaver crew, captained by Don Strandberg, and coached by Gene Freese, amassed a total of 83 points.

The highlights of the season were the first half at McMinnville where the Beavers played sparkling ball; the Newberg game, in which Jim Tsugawa, a "weaving, twisting, dodging, running, passing menace" scampered 33 yards for the winning touchdown in the last 30 seconds of play. The final score —Beaverton 13, Newberg 12. Jim McKnight, Beaverton point kicker, missed only three all season. The bitterest defeat of the season was a 33-0 shellacking by arch-rival Tigard.

J. V.'s Show Promise

A turnout of freshmen, sophomores, and juniors, heralded a successful season in the future for the Beaverton football team. The JV's, Coached by Ted Harding, Vernon Hood, and David Porter, played in a J.V. league consisting of most schools in the T.Y.V. league.

Casaba Men Hit Tough Year...

Beaverton's basketball fortunes hit a low ebb this year with the team losing 13 league games to one win. Their season's record was 5 wins to 18 losses. A lack of height needed to control the backboard was the crippling factor on the team this year. Even though the won-lost record was not impressive, the boys played hard ball all season and deserve a lot of credit. The game average for the Beavers was 38.4, to the opponents 45.8.

Future Champs in T.Y.V. Basketball

The Beaverton J.V. basketball team this year showed promise for a higher league standing for the varsity next year. The JV's finished 2nd in the JV league, with a season's record of 13 wins to 7 losses. High point man for the JV's this year, was Eddie Ramsdell.

The frosh basketball team, coached by Gene Duncan, promised height and experience to Beaver lineups in future years. Its won-lost record was not indicative of the long hours of practice spent by the team in preparation for games with most schools in the T.Y.V. league.

Coach Eugene Duncan's horsehide crew, working against odds, pulled a third place in the T.Y.V. baseball loop last year. An all letterman sophomore and junior squad, won 7 and lost 6 to nail down that position. The Beavers were handicapped by having no home field. This necessitated traveling to every game which worked a hardship on the boys. In addition, the lack of a practice field and a batting cage teamed to make it difficult. The brightest spots in the picture, however, were the 14 lettermen who returned to the 1950 squad. Batting champion for the team last year was Bud Cox with a batting average of .337, and Norman Haines was top pitcher with a record of 5 wins against 4 defeats.

Kiwanis Sponsor Boxers...

Slugging it out with other teams of the area, the Beaverton boxing team was coached by Vernon (Red) Boyer, and sponsored by the Kiwanis Club.

Outstanding boxers of the team this year were Bob Barton, a "slugger" type, and Jim McKnight and Caryl Nicholson of the "boxing" variety.

At the end of the school year, trophies were awarded to graduating seniors, Norris Holmes and Bob Hunt, both second year men.

Several matches were held this year including two with Hillsboro and two with Banks High. Also, two representatives of Forest Grove high school met defeat at the hands of the Beaver mitt-men.

Tennis Team Top Notch in T.Y.V....

With the forming of the TYV tennis league the Beaver netters posted an impressive string of victories over their league rivals. They ended their season in a tie for first place with McMinnville with a record of four wins and one loss. The Beavers were the only team that defeated McMinnville and McMinnville was the only team to defeat our netmen.

'49 Cindermen Win T.Y.V. and District Meet

After a rather slow start the '49 Beaver cindemen improved rapidly and showed their superiority by winning the county T.Y.V. and District track meets. Then Bevos Jim Moore, Paul Oldenber, Bob Thompson, Don Chambers, Lyle Kingsley, Day DeYoung, Zane Mulhausen, and the relay team consisting of Bob Casteel, Paul Strandberg, Jerome Olson and Don Chambers, qualified for the state finals at Corvallis. Although only one first place was won in the district, Paul Oldenberg in the broad jump, enough Beavers took seconds to enable Beaverton to send the delegation of ten to the State Championship meet.

Inter-class Track Meet

A revival occurred at Beaverton high school on the 8th day of April, 1949. On this day, the custom of a track meet between classes was revived. Boys and girls from all four classes competed in the gala event to decide which class held track supremacy. First place went to the seniors, 73¾ points, second place to the juniors, 62 points, third place to the sophomores, 43¼ points, and last place to the freshman, 19 points. The great success of this meet caused plans to be made immediately for another such event that was held this year.

Golf and Rifle Clubs Active...

A new organization was welcomed to school last year, with the formation of a golf club under the able coaching of Mr. Eugene Duncan. The only tournament last year was an inter-school affair. Roger Murch was the champion divoteer in that event. Another inter-school tournament was held this year after the Beaver went to press along with several matches with other golf teams of the State.

Although a new activity in Beaverton this year, the Rifle Club has been organized for the past five years. Under the direction of Lee Thompson, M. D. and Veldon Boge, the triggermen have made a place for themselves by winning in many of the major matches. A possible league is foreseen with functioning teams at Beaverton, Hillsboro and McMinnville. Others are forming at Tigard and Forest Grove.
